PROSPECTUS OF THE CONSERVATOR.

The Conservator is a strictly Union pa-per intended to sid in the organization of a National Union party upon the basis of the constitution and late compromise as a settlement forever of the slavery agitation. It will opose there organization of the old parties upon the worn out issues of the day, and favor the concert of the conservative men of both parties and of all sections. In doing this it will endeavor to reconcile men, parties and sections to each other, and to bring about a real Union revival. As a matter of course it will oppuse agillation, secession, disunion or repeal; and favor reconciliation, peace, Union, the Constituvion, the compromise, equality, civil and religious tolerance by all of all. It will oppose partisan candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency from any section, and fivor a well concerted organized selection of candidates by the Union men, one from each section, and of each party. It will sustain the present administration as highly conservative. It shall be as the voice of one crying in the wilderness, prepare ye the way of the people and soake their path strait, for behold the day of their power is at hand.

In every thing that tends to make that wiser and bener, and happier it will load such help as God may grant it ability.

In all this great work the editor trusting in God and a holy purpose holdly fixes his standard on the outer wall, believing that the hearts of the people are sipe for the enterprize, and drat the great leaders of conservatism and the glorious union Presses after having prepared the hear's of the people for a great constitutional union party will not leave their work unfinished nor will the great state of Georgia having put band to the plough, ever look back. Already the constitutional union party of Georgia is become the chief of the corner of the national union party. Roll on the Furs. balt and Alabama and Mississippi, yea, till every state, from the greatest to the least, shall vie with each other in kindly domonstrations of fratereity and M accotion to that constitution and union which our fathers lett us.

The editor would be obliged by exchanges with all the conservative Presses and such other prints as may feel disposed to a friendly interchange.
LEWIS C. GAINES,

Editor and Proprietor.

The Conservator shall appear soon in large size; in new dress, and with a magnificent emblamatic heading Its ambition is to become a useful and national sheet. It will strive to merit and hopes to receive the patronage of the friends of the union without distinction of party or place. To a single address it will be sent for $2.00, cash. addrew it will be sent for Tolclub of 10 at 1,75, 1,50,

Post masiers will please act as agents. Per sons wishing to take the Conservator will please notify the editor—those at a disc tance by letter post paid
